Family rallies around daughter with sickle cell disease, plans fundraiser

Meghan McCune Reporter

After decades of watching their daughter Jasmine, 36, live with sickle cell disease, James and Cheryl Wilson have hope for a cure.

The blood disorder causes red blood cells to become hard and sticky, potentially blocking blood flow and causing severe pain, anemia and other conditions.

But now, new FDA-approved therapies offer new hope by modifying patients own blood-forming stem cells. One treatment, called Casgevy, has allowed many patients to remain free of severe pain crises, and Daniel Cressy, 23, of Metairie was recently described as functionally cured after receiving it.

DiEsha Dorsey of Boutte grew up feeling rejected and abandoned.

She said her mother, who left her in the care of her grandmother, never hugged her and paid little attention to her daughter.

Her mother married in 1981 and lived with her husband and three other children while Dorsey stayed in her grandmother's care.

"That was still a question in the back of my head, like, why I can't live with my mom," Dorsey said.

Jerome Scott was 50 years old, but according to his daughter Jasmine, he had the energy and outgoingness of a far younger man.

"He still acted like he was 21," she said. "He was a people person and a people pleaser."

An alum of Hahnville High School and a native of Killona, Scott passed away suddenly on July 17, the result of a brain aneurysm. His death came several months after he was involved in a hit-and-run accident while riding his motorcycle, according to his daughter.

Bethune teacher starts with foundation of trust

ryana@heraldguide.com

Before giving out any assignments to new students each school year, Christina Landry works toward an assignment of her own. “Before I can teach them, they need to trust me,” Landry said. Landry has been a teacher in St. Charles Parish for the past 10 years, eight of those spent at the public school district’s Head Start program – first at Carver Early Learning Center and then Bethune Early Learning Center (previously known as East Bank Head Start). She made the move to the east bank three years ago. She looks to establish a strong foundation for learning at the outset of her time with students, making every child feel safe, loved and valued. Likewise, she wants to build connection with their families so they can

Parish nears completion of $660,000 volleyball courts

The parish is aiming to complete the construction of sand volleyball courts by September. Construction of the $660,000 project, which is located near Edward A. Dufresne Community Center, began in May. The project is completely funded by the Parks and Recreation Department, and the bid was awarded to Centric Gulf Coast. Grayson Touchard, a spokesperson for the Parks and Recreation Department, said the department is currently in the middle of the volleyball court construction. “With rain, certain parts of the project can be pushed back,” she said.

Touchard said more information will be released as the project gets closer to completion. “The courts are meant for the community to use, and we hope to start some recreational adult leagues as well,” she said. The Parks and Recreation Department has completed several construction projects in recent years. In 2025, the parish spent nearly $2.5 million on a revitalization project for East Bank Bridge Park. The renovations included two new tennis courts, two pickleball courts, a batting cage, a basketball court, turf infields, VOLLEYBALL COURTS on 8A

FUNDRAISER from 1A

When James and Cheryl, learned about the new therapies, they resolved to do everything possible to help their daughter receive treatment.

“We’re definitely going to get her there no matter what,” James said. “We’re going to make sure that we do everything humanly possible for us to get our daughter this treatment.”

The family is hosting the “Fight Like Jazz” fundraiser Sunday at the Norco Civic Center at 11 a.m. The event is open to the public. Proceeds will help the family with travel and other expenses as Jasmine pursues a multi-year treatment process in Alabama.

The fundraiser will include food, drinks, live entertainment, raffles and prizes. James, the chef at the family-owned restaurant Mama Is That You in Norco, will cook white beans, cornbread, salad, barbecue chicken, fried fish, shrimp stew and green beans. Lunches will also include a beverage.

The family is also accepting monetary donations, sponsorships, raffle items and volunteers. Donations may be made through Cash App at $MamaIsThatYou. For more information, residents can call 985-294-2292.

“The more support, the better,” James said. “My wife and I, you know, we’re doing the best we can with what we have.”

James said Jasmine, mother to 9-year-old Zion, has been a fighter all her life.

“She has a beautiful spirit and a beautiful presence,” he said. “She would give her last to a friend. And when she calls a person her friend, that’s like a sister to her.”

For Cheryl, the chance for a cure for her daughter means everything.

“A cure would not only give me peace, but it would let me know that she has a future,” Cheryl said. “My goal for her is to have the life that I always wanted, you know, to be married, to be happy, to have a household that she could provide for her son.”

Jasmine was diagnosed at 3 years old after her family noticed she was frequently ill and had little appetite. Doctors ran tests and identified the disease. The diagnosis was especially frightening because Cheryl’s sister also had sickle cell disease and later died after living into her 50s.

“It was a scary moment,” Cheryl said.

Over the years, Jasmine has suffered painful sickle cell crises and endured long stays at the hospital. James said sickle cell disease is an excruciating condition, with pain patients have compared to being stabbed in their bones.

Jasmine has experienced strokes, seizures, sepsis and a coma. During one recent hospitalization, doctors found two blood clots in her lungs, according to her parents. The last several months have been difficult. Jasmine has been hospitalized roughly once a month for stays lasting between one and three weeks.

During Jasmine’s most recent prolonged hospital stay, Zion walked into his grandparents’ room with tears in his eyes.

“I miss my mom,” he said. “My mom is in the hospital more than she is home.”

Zion told his family that’s why he takes advantage of any time his mom is home with him.

“And I tell you, that broke me up,” James said. “That coming from a 9-year-old, it was so pure. He’s an awesome kid, and he has the strength like his mother.”

James hopes Jasmine can eventually use her experiences to encourage other people living with sickle cell disease.

“We’d like to create some type of platform for Jasmine to reach out to other sickle cell patients,” he said. “Don’t let it define you.”

someone who lived in the neighborhood. But Dorsey wondered why he never approached her and never treated her like a daughter.

“I just know that I had a gut feeling something was not right,” Dorsey said. “Nothing added up.”

Dorsey lived for decades feeling confused about her family and her identity. But then, in 2021, a DNA test changed everything.

The test revealed that the man she believed was her father was not her biological parent.

“I literally shut down,” Dorsey, 47, said. “I shut down mentally, emotionally. I just cried. I just couldn’t believe it. That gave me a lot of answers for what I was looking for as a little girl and a grown woman.”

The AncestryDNA test revealed that her biological father was a man in Virginia. When she finally found a phone number for him, she told herself that one more rejection was not going to hurt.

She dialed the number.

Instead of rejection, she found acceptance and love.

Now, Dorsey has answers. Her father, Michael, told her he never knew about her. But if he had, things would have been different.

“It felt like, wow, somebody finally wanted to protect me,” Dorsey said.

Dorsey, who works as a behavioral health technician, flew to Virginia and met family she had never known. She has a half-sister, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews, uncles and other paternal relatives.

Her father, who was 62 at the time, hugged her.

“That was the first time a parent hugged me in 43 years,” Dorsey said.

Dorsey poses for a photograph with her father and other paternal relatives. She wrote a memoir about her experience titled, “The Secret That Set Me Free,” which is now available on Amazon.

“Sometimes I gotta pinch myself. Is this really happening? I’m really somebody’s daughter after 43 years.”

After learning the truth, Dorsey started writing to process everything she was feeling. She published her memoir, “The Secret That Set Me Free,” on June 13, her grandmother’s birthday.

“Sometimes the secret meant to break you becomes the very thing that sets you free,” Dorsey writes in the memoir.

She hopes her story inspires others to embrace healing, resilience and authentic living. Her memoir is available for purchase on Amazon.

Dorsey said she feels blessed that she was able to find her father and family after years of questions, confusion and hurt.

“The good Lord turned it around for my good, and I’m forever grateful and thankful,” she said.

Research suggests unexpected family discoveries are not rare among consumer DNA-test users. One national survey found that 27 percent discovered previously unknown close relatives, while a large study found that 3 percent learned someone they believed was a biological parent was not.

Dorsey said she joined private online NPE, or “Not Parent Expected,” groups for people who have discovered unexpected biological relationships. She said some members learn they were conceived through affairs, while others discover they had been misled about their parentage.

“I’m one of the blessed ones because everybody doesn’t have a happy ending,” she said.

Each year, Dorsey travels to Virginia to visit her father in January for his birthday and again for Father’s Day in June. Members of her newly discovered family also call and FaceTime her regularly.

“I’m still adjusting to my dad being like, ‘Hey, sweetie,’ because nobody took that kind of time to be concerned about certain things,” she said.

For years, Dorsey felt out of place. She was a piece that didn’t fit in the family puzzle. Finding her paternal relatives gave her a new sense of recognition and belonging.

“I’m a carbon copy of my dad and my grandmother,” she said.

Born on April 24, 1961, in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, she was the beloved daughter of the late Dewey and Mary Helen Kelly. Janice possessed a creative spirit and found great joy in writing, drawing, and playing the keyboard. She was a truly selfless person who always put the happiness and well-being of others before herself. More than anything, she wanted everyone around her to enjoy life, make beautiful memories, and embrace each day with joy and gratitude. She believed life was meant to be lived to the fullest, and she encouraged others to laugh often, love deeply, and never take a single moment for granted.

Janice's greatest legacy lives on through her family. She is survived by her sons, Davis Nicholas III and his wife Ashlyn, Dane Nicholas, and Drew Nicholas and his wife Logan; her sister, Judy Burns and her husband Jim; and her sisters-in-law Donna Nicholas and Melinda Kelly. of her newest grandson, Vincent Nicholas. She also leaves behind many loving nieces and nephews, including Christopher Chapman (Rita), Lane Kelly, Dewey Kelly, Jed Spurgeon (Laura), Susan Turley (Matthew), and Steven Burns (Samantha); and many great nieces and nephews.

She is reunited in rest with her late daughter, Destinee Jones (Austin), and her brothers, Jimmy and Jerry Kelly.

His siblings Keith Frickey and wife Tanya, Dale Frickey and wife Kim-Alice, Judy Sumrall and husband John, and Monica Frickey and many beloved nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents Beverly Eusea and A.J. Frickey, and sisters Trina Frickey and Lori Frickey Latiolais.

Dana loved spending his time with his family and friends. He especially loved anything to do with his grandchildren, fishing, mud riding, camping, and watching them perform in sporting, theater and singing events. He would host Frickey Fridays with all his extended family and friends, where he would do what he also loved, cooking and feeding them. He loved to entertain and make everyone laugh. He gave his time to others without expecting anything in return, as he said "you gotta do what you gotta do." He was deeply loved and will be deeply missed by his family and friends.

All who knew Dana knows that he was always quick with a story or a joke. He loved to laugh and spend time with family and friends. If he were here, he would say don't think about me with sadness but remember all the great times and memories that were made.

GOFUNDME from 1A

“He was complaining of a headache ... he said he felt like he was spinning,” said Jasmine. “His fiancée left to go get some ibuprofen. When she got back, he was unresponsive. His eyes were open and he was making this breathing noise, like it was hard for him to breathe.

“She’s in the medical field, and she did CPR ... they airlifted him to Ochsner.”

Doctors determined he had a massive brain bleed with blood rapidly filling his brain. Ultimately, not enough blood could be drained to save his life.

The motorcycle accident occurred in March and it necessitated surgery.

“Someone on the highway saw him when it happened and pulled over to help. A lot of people tried to help,” said Jasmine.

Jasmine said it’s not known if the incident has a direct link to her father’s death. She said he was seemingly able to get back to normal, or at least close to it, following surgery.

But there are some indications, she said, that the accident might have played a large role.

“He was complaining of headaches almost every day (after the accident),” said Jasmine.

She said Scott had just visited her and her six children in Arkansas not long before his death. Jasmine said she had some indication that Scott was dealing with some health issues, but that he consistently downplayed it for her and her siblings. Chief among those issues was that he believed he was battling congestive heart failure, Jasmine said, but he hoped to shield his children from the seriousness of those issues.

“He’d give us bits and pieces, but he’d laugh it off,” she said. “Us being his kids, I don’t think he wanted us to worry as much. But he was going through a lot.”

She said her father – who was affectionately nicknamed Roni by most who knew him - was devoted to his family and that toward the end of his life, he was especially intentional about traveling to spend time with Jasmine and her four siblings.

The family recently held a plate lunch fundraiser to raise money in order to give Scott a proper burial. He did not have life insurance and his sudden passing left the family without means to cover funeral arrangements.

Jasmine said she spoke with someone with the Jefferson Parish coroner’s office about cremation assistance but learned that if the parish handled the cremation, the family would likely not receive Scott’s ashes, and that he could be cremated with multiple other individuals.

“That’s not what we want for him ... I’m a single mom of six struggling myself ... my siblings and I need to see him laid to rest properly,” Jasmine said. “We just need help.”

They’ve also set up a GoFundMe toward that goal, titled “Help lay Roni to rest.”

work together to maximize the student’s learning experience, and ultimately their potential.

“I get to watch these kids grow,” Landry said. “I don’t just count myself as a teacher – I count them as family, and I’ve been fortunate to be able to stay in contact with some of the families I’ve worked with over the years, which gives me the chance to see them evolve not only as children but as adults.

“I think it’s so important to start by establishing a relationship with them and building a community with their family. That leads to a lot of teamwork and meetings where we talk about how we can help each other and help our children.”

Landry believes there’s a lot of negativity in the world that can serve to tear down students and make them feel less than.

“We have to build them up,” Landry said. “A lot of people tear children down, and we have to build them up to be strong people ... I want to instill in them that they can be anything that they want to be in this world, and that they can do hard things, incredible things.

“I want to help them understand that they are somebody, and they’re going to grow up to be somebody.”

When she hears from a former student or parent and they let her know she’s made a positive impact for them, it’s “an incredible blessing,” Landry said.

“Just that they’ve allowed me to be part of that child’s life,” said Landry.

Landry said she knew early on that she wanted to go into education.

“I have always loved children,” she said. “And I just feel like it was God’s calling for my life. I’m in children’s ministry for my church ... I’ve been working with 3-year-olds for the majority of my career. I love just talking to them.”

She began working in a preschool right after graduating high school, while attending college full-time.

The feeling of seeing the joyful students arrive has never faded.

“When they run in and hug me and smile because they’re happy to see me and they just love being here, it lets me know they feel loved and nurtured, and that it’s a job well done,” Landry said.

fresh grass and an irrigation system. Two new light poles and LED fixtures at the tennis courts were also installed. The parish completed similar renovations at West Bank Bridge Park in 2024.

Last August, the parish completed renovations at Bethune Park. The renovations, which took about a year to complete, included a covered basketball court, a pavilion, a playground, batting cages, upgraded baseball and multiuse fields and improved dugouts. Commemorative signage honoring Mary M. Bethune High School was also installed.

That renovation was funded by a collaboration between the parish and Shell Norco, which provided a $500,000 donation. The project marked the first major upgrade to the park in 25 years.

In April, the parish held a ribbon cutting ceremony for the new outdoor classroom at the Norco park named the Dow Discovery Deck. The parish also plans to build a new gymnasium at East Bank Bridge Park. Last May, the council approved a $356,901 agreement with Murray Architects to design the gym.

Merlyna Mathieu Valentine, and it was a homecoming for her. Valentine spent 30 years as an educator in St. Charles Parish. She is a former principal of St. Rose Elementary, and prior to that had tenures at Ethel Schoeffner Elementary and Carver Early Learning Center. She has been named Principal of the Year at both the district and state levels and Teacher of the Year during her time in St. Charles Parish, and served as the parish's executive director of elementary schools.

Valentine has overcome incredible tragedy to find success and inspire others.

Keynote speaker Merlyna Mathieu Valentine.

In August of 2007, a kidney stone led to a life-threatening blood infection for Valentine, who said her doctors believed that had she been hospitalized just 30 minutes later, she would have been unlikely to survive.

She survived, but the situation still had great cost. Over the next year she underwent four amputations, losing both hands and both legs as a result of the infection.

Valentine made the decision that this wouldn't stop her – nor would she even let it slow her down for long. She returned to work as soon as she learned to use her prosthetics.

After 30 years, she retired from education, but continued seeking ways to impact lives. Valentine has authored two books: a children's book, Daisy the Extra Special Flower, about overcoming adversity, and Living Life Without Limb-Its, the story of her journey. She has become a motivational speaker and a leadership consultant.

Following her appearance, Valentine noted that she saw several of her former students at the Lafon Center, both from her second grade classroom and also her days as a principal, and said that “there's no place like home.”

Free exercise program helps seniors build strength, community

Meghan McCune Reporter
meghanm@heraldguide.com

Free, beginner-friendly exercise classes are open to seniors each week at three locations in St. Charles Parish.

The program, which is led by licensed physical trainer Deborah Autin, is open to both members and nonmembers of Silver Sneakers, a fitness program offered as a benefit through qualifying Medicare Advantage and Medicare Supplement plans.

Autin, a parish resident who previously taught exercise classes at Anytime Fitness in Luling, began offering the community classes after the gym discontinued group fitness. She contacted Silver Sneakers and began teaching through its Flex program, which allows instructors to hold classes at community locations.

“I started this class two and a half years ago because there’s a need for it,” Autin said. “Consistent exercise is what exercise is. If you’re not exercising consistently, it’s not really exercise.”

Every Monday, Autin teaches Silver Sneakers Classic, a strength training class, at 10 a.m. at the St. Charles Parish West Bank Library in Luling. Chair yoga follows at 11 a.m.

On Tuesdays, residents can join Autin’s strength training class at 10:45 a.m. at New Life Community Church on Lakewood Drive in Luling. On Fridays, Autin teaches a class at Holy Family Church at 10:45 a.m. Each class is 45 minutes long.

There is no cost to attend, and participants do not need to register in advance. They can arrive, sign a waiver and provide their name. The classes are free for both Silver Sneakers members and nonmembers.

“All they need to do is show up,” Autin said. “Really, it can’t be any easier.”

Autin said the Silver Sneakers Classic class focuses on muscular strength, joint mobility, balance and range of motion. The chair yoga class includes seated stretches, twists and balance exercises.

Autin provides resistance bands and other equipment. Participants may bring light hand

“We had some great community partners,” Autin said.

Autin, 70, moved to the parish in 1998. She worked in air traffic control for 35 years and retired from the Federal Aviation Administration as an assistant air traffic manager. She began teaching fitness classes in 2010 and later became a certified personal trainer, with additional certifications in yoga, Pilates and working with special populations.

Autin said regular exercise is important for maintaining strength, mobility and independence as people age.

“You have to maintain your mobility, and you have to maintain your independence,” she said. “I believe the only way you can do that is to exercise.”

She encourages people who have not exercised recently to work at their own pace, take weights. Exercises can be performed standing or seated, and Autin offers modifications for people with different fitness and mobility levels.

“We have options for everybody,” she said.

The classes are designed primarily for adults 55 and older. She said her students range in age from their 50s to their 90s.

Autin said the music-based classes are beginner friendly and include exercises for muscles and joints, along with activities involving balance, mobility and memory.

“Every class is supposed to be fun,” she said. “It’s supposed to be effective, and you do what you feel like you can do.”

The West Bank Library, New Life Community Church and Holy Family Church agreed to provide locations for the classes.

breaks and complete only the movements they feel comfortable doing.

“Do what you can,” Autin said. “When you need to take a break, you take a break. It’s better to try and fail than never to try, but you will not fail this class. It’s beginner friendly. The people are very friendly.”

The classes also include a social component. Participants hold a potluck on the last Monday of each month, organize occasional crafts and meet for lunch at least once a month.

Autin said members also check on participants who have missed several classes.

“If they don’t show up for a couple of weeks, we call them,” she said.

For Autin, the classes support both physical and mental health.

“The most important aspect of this is the community that we have in the class,” she said. “I think it’s so important for your mental health, as well as your physical health. We all support each other.”

The impossible quarterback

Brees' Hall of Fame induction caps a journey many Saints fans never thought they'd see

Ryan Arena Editor

I grew up on the 1990s New Orleans Saints - and I could not fathom Drew Brees.

Today we live in a world where virtually every NFL team has its statistical standouts, and all of those numbers are at our fingertips. When it comes time for the fantasy football draft, even the Browns will present somebody worth your draft pick by season's end.

And I'm here to tell you, this wasn't always the case - you weren't finding much from those 90s Saints teams. The worst iterations of those teams involved the Saints changing running backs and even quarterbacks seemingly every two to three weeks. Brett Favre of the Packers threw more than 30 touchdown passes in five straight seasons from 1994 to 1998 - that seemed like witchcraft! At least to a Saints fan like myself. The Saints didn't win a playoff game until 2000, and wouldn't even qualify for the postseason again until 2006.

So, the mere suggestion that a man would arrive in New Orleans, play the quarterback position and, before his career was done, pass for more yards and touchdowns than all but one other player - it would have been laughable. Balderdash. Rubbish. Poppycock!

What if one were to also suggest to that young version of myself that this person would not only lead my team to the NFC Championship Game in his first season with the team, but before his fourth year was through would be hoisting the Lombardi Trophy after winning Super Bowl MVP and leading the New Orleans Saints - again, one playoff win in the 39 years of Saints football prior to his arrival! - to a world championship.

Sir, if you're going to troll me, at least make your story believable.

But all of this happened, and of course I bring it up now because on Saturday, Drew Brees - my quarterback, our quarterback - will be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He goes in on the first ballot - just 76 players before him have done that, and just 0.2 percent of all players in NFL history can call themselves a first-ballot Hall-of-Famer (and before you might ask - yes, Destrehan High's own Ed Reed was another).

It's difficult to put into context exactly how radical of a culture shift he and Sean Payton ushered in for professional football in New Orleans. The Saints had five seasons with 10 or more wins from their debut season of 1967 to 2005. The Brees and Payton-led Saints notched five in their first eight seasons. They'd finish with nine such seasons before they were through.

The Saints had two division championships all-time prior to their arrival. They would win four NFC South championships in a row to close Brees' career, and seven total.

Jim Mora was the first head coach to bring the Saints to respectability, a stretch of five winning seasons in six years at one point. That time period is quite special for plenty of its own reasons.

Ryan Arena

BREES from 11A

But for the team to effectively be one of the NFL’s more respected franchises over a 15-year period would have been so hard to imagine at any point before. New Orleans won 150 games from 2006 to 2020, the fourth highest mark in the NFL behind only New England, Green Bay and Pittsburgh.

So, this is the point of the column where you expect me to tell you that the day Brees signed in New Orleans was one of the most exciting sports fan experiences of my life.

Funny thing about that.

I didn’t want him!

A massive part of the Brees story, of course, is that he signed in New Orleans after suffering a very significant shoulder injury in the final game of his San Diego Charger career, Week 17 of 2005. He had a complete 360-degree tear of the labrum, and a partial tear to his rotator cuff. His free agency effectively saw two teams show significant interest, New Orleans and Miami, and the latter was not completely sold that he would overcome the injury to return to his previous form.

Drew Brees lifts son Baylen in the aftermath of the New Orleans Saints’ Super Bowl XLIV victory.

To put into context – Brees was a Pro Bowl-level quarterback with the Chargers, back when that meant much more than it does today. Those players never reach free agency and they were very rarely traded. With the franchise tag, prying that level of quarterback from a team was near impossible, and yet Brees was left with a rebuilding franchise in a post-Katrina-rebuilding city.

So, the idea that this longshot scenario was going to just work out for the New Orleans Saints – I was pretty skeptical. The Saints were simply more enlightened about the situation than all other teams? LOL. LMAO, even.

His first game in Black and Gold saw him lead the Saints to a nice, workman-like win over the Cleveland Browns, 19-14, one that saw him manage the game pretty flawlessly. He led the team to three field goals in the first half and created the late separation the team needed with his first-ever touchdown pass with the team – and first of many to Marques Colston.

A week later, however – you started to see the vision.

The Saints fell behind Green Bay 13-0 – and to me at least, this was a major milestone in the Brees era. Because until his team fell behind here, until his team needed him to rise, we didn’t see Brees truly cut it loose with his surgically repaired shoulder.

We saw it that day. Brees passed for 353 yards and two touchdowns – by halftime, the Saints were in the lead. By the final whistle, they were 2-0, 34-27 winners in a shootout over the aforementioned Brett Favre.

A week later was the reopening of the Superdome. And more than anyone else, that was Steve Gleason’s night. But I remember my friends and I turning to each other during what was a convincing win over previously unbeaten Atlanta - “... are ... are we good? Are we actually GOOD?”

We were, it turns out. And we would be, more often than not, for the next 15 years.

Brees not only overcame his severe shoulder injury, but in fact, unbelievably, he was better than ever.

In 2009, Brees led the team to the dream season. Unbeaten through the first 13 games. A Super Bowl crown.

Two years later, he captained one of the most dominant offenses in league history in 2011. 9-0 at home that season – almost all of those games decided by halftime.

We also suffered along with him. The Saints were in position to play in a lot of big games during this era, and suffered some memorable, crushing losses. The San Francisco playoff loss to cap that 2011 season. The ridiculous Diggs touchdown to end the Minnesota loss. The 2019 NFC Championship no call – a game that should have resulted in Brees and the Saints’ second opportunity to play in a Super Bowl. That’s the kind of result that can easily swing a player out of first-ballot Hall status. Thankfully, it did not in this case, at the very least.

He’s accomplished all he has despite standing at just 6 feet tall, historically making him an anomaly at quarterback in the NFL. His accuracy was effectively a superpower.

No. 9 is one of the very best to ever do it.

And I just thank him for taking all of us along for his incredible ride.

Prayers

Prayers

“Heavy Burden”

Sometimes burdens are so hard to carry, that we have to lean on God's everlasting arms of love & grace & ask Him for help.
Lord forgive those who hurt & trespass against us & cause us harm & hurt.
Let them know what they are doing is not right in your sight.
Help them Lord & forgive them, I pray.
Let the love of the Lord abide in us & forgive them & bless them, those that do us harm.
We must pray for them and ask God to forgive them, in “Jesus Name.”
We also must forgive & forget.
Let the love of our Lord dwell within us daily.
Everyone will reap what they sow.
Do good unto others as they would do unto you.
Love & not hate.
Blessed are the pure in heart for they will see God.
See Him now while He may be found.
Don't wait until tomorrow, it may be too late then.
Love one another as God loves you.

COMMERCIAL LEASE

PARTIES: This lease, dated _____ by and between DJV LLC, (hereafter "LESSOR"), AND ST. CHARLES PARISH, (hereafter "LESSEE")

WITNESSETH:

LEASED PREMISES: In consideration of the rental stated herein and their mutual covenants, LESSOR leases to LESSEE and LESSEE leases from LESSOR, on the terms and conditions herein, the following described premises: 737 PAUL MAILLARD ROAD, SUITE "A-1" of the VILLAGE SQUARE SHOPPING CENTER, hereafter referred to as the "LEASED PREMISES".

1. TERMS: The term of this lease 1 year commencing August 1, 2026 and expiring July 31, 2027. The effective date of this lease will be August 1, 2026.

2. EARLY OCCUPANCY: The parties agree that LESSEE is to occupy the premises on N/A which is the commencement date of this lease, for the purposes of conducting installations and alterations to the leased premises. Rent does not commence until the effective date.

3. DELAYED POSSESSION: In the event the LEASED PREMISES are not ready for occupancy by the commencement date, due to causes beyond LESSOR'S control, the commencement date will be the date of actual occupancy and the expiration date shall remain unchanged. Provided however, if the delay in occupancy exceeds 60 days, LESSEE, at its option, may cancel this lease.

4. RENTAL: LESSEE agrees to pay to LESSOR, without deduction, set off, prior notice or demand, rental during said term payable on the FIRST DAY OF EACH MONTH in advance as follows, $1,500.00 (One thousand, five hundred dollars), which includes property taxes and insurance. Monthly rental payments shall be due and payable on or before the first day of each calendar month beginning on the "effective date" during the demised term provided. If the "effective date" should be a date other than the first day of a calendar month, the monthly rental set forth above shall be prorated to the end of that calendar month and all succeeding installments of rent shall be payable on or before the first day of each succeeding calendar month during the demised term.

All rentals due under this lease are payable to the order of DJV LLC, and delivered to LESSOR at P.O. BOX 47, LULING, LA 70070 or as LESSOR or his successor representative may hereafter from time-to-time designate in writing.

5. SECURITY DEPOSIT: On the date of execution of this lease by LESSEE, there shall be due and payable by LESSEE a security deposit in an amount of N/A, to be held for the performance by LESSEE of LESSEE'S covenants and obligations under this lease, it being expressly understood that the deposit shall not be considered an advance payment of rental or a measure of LESSOR'S damage in case of default by LESSEE or breach by LESSEE or LESSEE'S covenants under this lease. Such security deposit will be held by LESSOR without interest and LESSEE hereby pledges such deposit to LESSOR and grants LESSOR a continuing, unconditional security interest in such deposit to secure the full payment by LESSEE of all sums due under this lease and the full performance by LESSEE of all of its obligations hereunder. LESSOR may, from time-to-time, without prejudice to any other remedy, use the security deposit to the extent necessary to make good any arrears of rent and/or damage, injury, expense or liability caused to LESSOR by the event of default or breach covenant, any remaining balance of the security deposit to be returned by LESSOR to LESSEE upon termination of this lease.

6. PURPOSE & USE: LESSEE shall occupy the LEASED PREMISES throughout the full term of the lease and the principal business to be conducted is described as Parish Office, but for no other purpose that is illegal nor in any manner creating a nuisance or trespass. Neither sidewalks nor loading docks or any other outside area shall be used for sale, storage or display in any manner whatsoever. LESSEE agrees to comply with (and to indemnify LESSOR from any violation of) all laws or ordinances relative to LESSEE'S use of the LEASED PREMISES.

7. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS & REGULATIONS: LESSEE shall at its own cost and expense obtain any and all licenses and permits necessary of any such use. LESSEE shall comply with all governmental laws, ordinances and regulations applicable to the use of the LEASED PREMISES and shall promptly comply with all governmental orders and directives for the corrections, preventions and abatement of nuisances in, upon or connected with LEASED PREMISES, all at LESSEE'S sole expense. Without LESSOR'S prior written consent, LESSEE shall not receive, store or otherwise handle any product, material or merchandise which is explosive or highly flammable or considered to be a HAZARDOUS MATERIAL (see Hazardous Material below). LESSEE will not permit the LEASED PREMISES to be used for any purpose or in any manner which would render the insurance thereon void or the insurance risk more hazardous.

8. HAZARDOUS MATERIALS: As used in this lease, the term "Hazardous Material" means any flammable items, explosives, radioactive materials, hazardous or toxic substances, material or waste or related materials, including any substances defined as or included in the definition of "hazardous substances", "hazardous waste", "hazardous materials", or "toxic substances" now or subsequently regulated under any applicable federal, state or local laws or regulations, including without limitations petroleum-based products, paints, solvents, lead, cyanide, DDT, printing inks, acids, pesticides, ammonia compounds and other chemical products and materials which are subsequently found to have adverse effects on the environment or the health and safety of persons. LESSEE shall not cause or permit any "hazardous material" to be generated, produced, brought upon, used, stored, treated or disposed of in or about the LEASED PREMISES by LESSEE, its agents, employees, contractors, sub-lessees or invitees without the prior written consent of LESSOR. LESSOR shall be entitled to take into account such other factors or facts LESSOR may reasonably determine to be relevant in determining whether to grant or withhold consent to LESSEE'S proposed activity with respect to "hazardous materials". In no event, however, shall LESSOR be required to consent to the installation or use of any storage tanks on the property.

9. ACCEPTANCE OF PREMISES – CONDITION & SUITABILITY: LESSEE hereby accepts the LEASED PREMISES in its existing condition (except as provided in Section 10) and assumes responsibility for the condition of the LEASED PREMISES. Any improvements or alterations desired by LESSEE shall be at LESSEE'S cost, with LESSOR'S prior written approval, except as hereinafter provided.

10. WARRANTY OF OPERABILITY: LESSOR warrants that all building systems, including but not limited to air conditioning/heating (HVAC), electrical, plumbing, door and sprinkler systems (if applicable) will be in good working order at the inception of this lease. LESSEE has ten (10) days upon taking occupancy to inspect the LEASED PREMISES for any deficiencies in said systems, during which period LESSEE is to notify LESSOR, or its agent, of any needed repairs and LESSOR shall perform promptly (or as practical) at LESSOR'S expense. LESSEE'S failure to notify LESSOR as described above will be construed as LESSEE'S acceptance of the LEASED PREMISES.

11. ALTERATIONS: All alterations, replacements and improvements made upon the LEASED PREMISES during the lease, including lighting, ceiling fans, electrical wiring, office partitions, flooring/carpeting, all heating and air conditioning, plumbing and plumbing fixtures shall be done only with the prior express written consent of LESSOR and shall become the property of the LESSOR upon the expiration of the lease. However, those certain trade fixtures, machinery and equipment installed by LESSEE solely for use in his business shall remain the property of LESSEE; such trade fixtures, machinery and equipment installed by LESSEE shall be removed at the expiration date of the lease, provided the lease not then be in default and provided the premises are returned to the same condition as when let, ordinary wear and tear, Act of God or other casualty excepted. In the event LESSEE fails to remove any such fixture, machinery or equipment installed by it, LESSOR may at their option and at LESSEE'S expense demolish, remove and dispose of all such items or may retain as property of LESSOR without reimbursement to LESSEE. LESSEE undertakes that no lien, privilege or claim of any kind shall rest against the LEASED PREMISES from any repairs, alterations, additions or improvements or from the construction of any building or buildings and agrees to furnish, at its own cost, to LESSOR, upon LESSOR'S request therefore, the bond of a responsible Surety Company, qualified to do business in the State of Louisiana, and reasonably accepted to LESSOR, conditioned to hold LESSOR and the LEASED PREMISES harmless against any such lien, privilege or claim; said bond to be for an amount equal to the estimated cost of such construction, restoration, alterations, additions or improvements. No consent of LESSOR for LESSEE to make improvements or repairs to the premises shall be deemed to permit LESSOR'S interest to become subject to labor or material liens and privileges.

12. LESSEE'S SIGNS & SIGN REMOVAL: Unless otherwise agreed in this lease, LESSEE shall not be permitted to place any signs on the LEASED PREMISES without LESSOR'S prior written approval. Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. Upon termination of this lease, LESSEE shall remove any sign, advertisement or notice painted on or affixed to the LEASED PREMISES and restore the place it occupied to the condition in which it existed as of the date of lease. Upon LESSEE'S failure to do so, LESSOR may do so at LESSEE'S expense.

13. PARKING: LESSEE shall have exclusive use of the provided parking spaces. LESSEE is solely responsible for securing its interest as it pertains to use of its designated parking by others.

14. UTILITIES: All utility charges on the LEASED PREMISES shall be paid by LESSEE including cost of electricity, water and gas (if applicable), garbage pickup, sewer and any special fees.

15. MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR BY LESSEE: LESSEE will at LESSEE'S sole expense keep and maintain in good repair the entire LEASED PREMISES including without limitation interior walls, floors, ceilings, ducts, utilities, air conditioning, heating, lighting and plumbing and also including any loading docks.

It is specifically acknowledged that safety and replacement of the plate glass is LESSEE'S responsibility, as well as keeping pipes from freezing in winter.

LESSEE shall immediately repair any damages caused by LESSEE. LESSEE shall also maintain a high degree of neatness and cleanliness. If LESSEE does not correct damages and/or clean the LEASED PREMISES within five (5) days of written notification by LESSOR, LESSOR may proceed with repairs and/or cleanup at LESSEE'S expense.

LESSEE agrees not to store merchandise or leave trash outside the LEASED PREMISES. All trash shall be kept in containers. Should LESSEE be in default in the requirements of this provision, LESSOR may, after notice to LESSEE, remedy such default at LESSEE'S expense and such expense shall be treated as additional rental due under this lease by LESSEE.

LESSOR shall be initially responsible for the good operation of the air conditioning and heating (HVAC) system upon commencement of this lease. Once the HVAC system is determined to be in good working order, LESSEE shall be responsible to maintain said system at its cost and expense.

16. MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR BY LESSOR LESSOR shall be responsible only to maintain and perform repairs to the roof, foundations and outside walls (not including doors and floors) of the LEASED PREMISES. All other parts of and equipment serving the LEASED PREMISES shall be LESSEE'S responsibility. However, LESSOR shall not be obligated to make any repair to such roof, foundations and outside walls unless it shall be notified in writing by LESSEE of the need of such repair and shall have had a reasonable period of time to make such repair and shall not be liable to make any repair to the roof, foundations or outside walls occasioned by LESSEE'S acts or negligence. LESSOR shall not be liable for any damage or loss in consequence of defects in the LEASED PREMISES causing leaks, stoppage of water, sewer or drains or any other defects about the building and LEASED PREMISES, unless such damage or loss is caused by defects in the roof, foundations or outside walls (not including doors and floors) that LESSOR shall have failed to repair within a reasonable time following written demand of LESSEE to do so. Where contractors or manufacturers' warranties are applicable to parts of the LEASED PREMISES other than the roof, foundations or outside walls, and the LESSEE has advised the LESSOR in writing of the need of enforcement of such warranties, the LESSOR, at its option, will either enforce such warranties for LESSEE'S benefit at LESSEE'S expense or assign such warranties to LESSEE for LESSEE to enforce at LESSEE'S expense.

17. COMMON AREA: LESSOR shall have the right from time-to-time to establish, modify and enforce reasonable rules and regulations with respect to all such facilities and areas, to change traffic access provided the LEASED PREMISES are adequately served by the new access, to restrict parking by LESSEES, their officers, agents and employees to designated areas and to do and perform such other acts as LESSOR shall, in the use of its business judgment, determine to be advisable with a view to the improvement of the convenience and use thereof by LESSEE, their officers, agents, employees and customers.

18. INSURANCE AND INDEMNITY:

(A) LIABILITY AND PROPERTY DAMAGE: LESSEE shall at all times during the full term of the this lease and during the full term of any holdovers or other rental agreements carry and maintain at its own cost and expense General Public Liability Insurance against claims for personal injury or death and property damage occurring on the LEASED PREMISES, such insurance to afford protection to both LESSOR and LESSEE, as their interest may appear, including coverage for the contract liability of LESSEE to LESSOR assumed hereunder, and is to be maintained in reasonable amounts, having regard to the circumstances and the usual practice at the time of prudent owners and lessees of comparable facilities in the New Orleans Metropolitan area, but in no event in amounts less than $1,000,000.00 with respect to bodily injury or death to any one person, $1,000,000.00 with respect to any one accident, and for property damage not less than $1,000,000.00.

LESSEE shall deliver to LESSOR evidence of liability and property damage insurance in the limits heretofore proscribed and shall name LESSOR as additional Insured, said evidence to be delivered promptly upon the execution of this lease and when applicable, all renewals thereof.

(B) PLACEMENT OF INSURANCE: All of the aforementioned policies of insurance shall be written and maintained in responsible insurance companies duly authorized and licensed to do business in and to issue policies in the State of Louisiana. The policies providing for the protection required in subparagraph A hereof may remain in the possession of LESSEE, provided, however, that LESSEE furnish satisfactory evidence to LESSOR or the LESSOR'S mortgagee that such policy or policies fulfill the requirements of this subparagraph.

(C) VOIDING INSURANCE: LESSEE will not permit the herein LEASED PREMISES to be used for any purpose which would render the insurance thereon void.

(D) INDEMNITY: LESSEE shall and will forever indemnify and save harmless LESSOR from and against any and all liability, penalties, expense, cause of action, suits, claims or judgments for death, injury or damages to persons or property during the term of this lease while on or arising out of the use, occupation, management or control of the LEASED PREMISES, adjacent property, streets and sidewalks or any act of operation on any thereof, or growing out of the demolition, construction, alteration or repair of any building thereon in any case without regard to whether such death, damage or injury results from the negligence of LESSEE or its sub-lessee or their respective agents or employees or otherwise. LESSEE shall and will, at its own expense, defend any and all suits that may be brought against LESSOR, or any of them, or in which LESSOR, or any of them may be impleaded with others, upon any such above mentioned claim or claims and shall and will satisfy, pay and discharge any and all judgments that may be recovered against LESSOR or any of them in any such action or actions in which LESSOR or any of them may be a party defendant.

19. ACTS OF LESSEE AFFECTING INSURANCE: LESSEE shall not do or cause or suffer anything to be or remain on or about the LEASED PREMISES or carry on or permit upon the LEASED PREMISES any trade or occupation or suffer to be done anything whereby the policy or policies of fire or other casualty insurance covering the LEASED PREMISES shall become void or suspended or that may render an increased or extra premium payable for the insurance of the LEASED PREMISES against fire and the hazards insured under extended coverage, unless such thing or activity is consented to in writing by the LESSOR and even if LESSOR consents to such thing or activity, LESSEE shall pay such increased or extra premium from time-to-time, on each occasion within ten (10) days after LESSEE shall have been advised of the amount thereof. Should LESSEE's occupancy cause LESSOR to be unable to obtain fire or other casualty insurance covering the LEASED PREMISES. LESSOR shall have the right to terminate this lease upon giving LESSEE not less than (10) days prior notice and LESSEE shall be and remain liable to LESSOR for all damages payable upon a default termination under Section 32 hereof. LESSEE shall notify LESSOR at anytime the LEASED PREMISES will become unoccupied so that LESSOR may obtain necessary vacancy permits from LESSOR'S insurers.

20. TAXES:
- (A) Subject to provisions of subparagraph B below, LESSOR agrees to pay before they become delinquent all taxes (both general and special), assessments or governmental charges (hereinafter collectively referred to as "taxes") lawful levied or assessed against the premises or any part thereof, provided, however, LESSOR may at its sole cost and expense (in its own name or in the name of both, as it may deem appropriate) dispute and contest the same, and in such case, such disputed item need not be paid until finally adjudged to be valid. At the conclusion of such contest, LESSOR shall pay the items contested to the extent that they are held valid, together with all items, court costs, interest and penalties relating thereto, all of which shall be considered taxes.
- (B) The maximum amount of taxes levied or assessed against the premises during any one real estate tax year to be paid by the LESSOR shall be PARISH AND STATE TAXES. If in any real estate tax year during the term hereof or any renewal or extension, the taxes levied or assessed against the premises for such tax year shall exceed the sum as calculated in the preceding sentence, LESSEE shall pay to LESSOR upon demand such excess as additional rental. The failure to pay such excess or proportionate share thereof, as the case may be, upon demand shall be treated hereunder in the same manner as a default in the payment of rent hereunder when due. Any payment to be made pursuant to this subparagraph B with respect to the real estate tax year in which this lease commences or terminates shall bear the same ratio to the payment which would be required to be made for the full tax year as that part of such tax year covered by the term of this lease bears to a full tax year.
- (C) If at any time during the term of this lease the present method of taxation shall be changed so that in lieu of the whole or any part of any taxes, assessments, levies or charges levied, assessed or imposed on real estate and the improvements thereon, there shall be levied, assessed or imposed on LESSOR a capital levy or other tax directly on the rents received there from and/or a franchise tax, assessment, levy or charge measured by or based, in whole or part, upon such rents for the present or any future building or buildings on the premises, then all such taxes, assessments, levies or charges or the part thereof so measured or based shall be deemed to be included within the term "taxes" for the purposes hereof.

21. DAMAGE AND DESTRUCTION: In case the said LEASED PREMISES shall be so damaged by fire or other cause as to be rendered untenable and necessary repairs cannot be made within 120 days, this lease shall terminate as of the time the LEASED PREMISES were rendered untenable. However, if the damage is such that repairs can be completed with 120 days, LESSOR agrees to make such repairs promptly and to allow LESSEE an abatement in rent for such time as the LEASED PREMISES remains untenable. If the loss occurs in the last 18 months of the original term or extension thereof, either party may terminate this lease effective the date of the casualty by giving the other party written notice of such election within 30 days of the loss. In the event of partial loss, the rent shall be abated by the proportion of the LEASED PREMISES rendered unfit for use.

22. WAIVER OF SUBROGATION: Neither the LESSOR nor the LESSEE shall be liable to the other for the loss arising out of damage to or destruction of the LEASED PREMISES or the building or improvements of which the LEASED PREMISES are a part thereof, when such loss is caused by any of the perils which are or could be included within or are insured against by a standard form of fire insurance with extended coverage, including sprinkler leakage insurance, if any. All such claims for any and all loss, however caused, hereby are waived. Said absence of liability shall exist whether or not the damage or destruction is caused by the negligence of either LESSOR or LESSEE or by any of their respective agents, servants or employees. It is the intention and agreement of the LESSOR or LESSEE that the rentals reserved by this lease have been fixed in contemplation that each party shall fully provide his own insurance carriers for reimbursement of any such loss, and further, that the insurance carriers involved shall not be entitled to subrogation under any circumstances against any party to this lease. Neither the LESSOR nor the LESSEE shall have any interest or claim in the other's insurance policy or policies or the proceeds thereof, unless specifically covered therein as a joint assured.

23. LESSOR RIGHT OF ENTRY: LESSOR may enter the premises at reasonable times to inspect the same to make repairs and alterations or to run pipe or electric wire, as LESSOR may deem necessary and appropriate provided that LESSOR will not unduly inconvenience LESSEE'S business.

24. QUIET POSSESSION: LESSOR agrees to warrant and defend LESSEE in its quiet and peaceful possession of the LEASED PREMISES so long as the lease is not in default.

25. CONDEMNATION: If all of the LEASED PREMISES are taken by condemnation or eminent domain proceedings or if so much of the LEASED PREMISES are so taken that the remainder is wholly inadequate of LESSEE'S business purposes (a "Total Taking"), this lease shall terminate. If the taking is not sufficiently extensive to constitute a Total Taking and if the taking includes a part of the building, then rent will not be reduced by the originally leased. If the taking does not include a part of the building, then rent will not be reduced by the taking so long as all parking spaces located on the LEASED PREMISES that are lost by the taking are replaced; then rent shall be reduced in an amount that is appropriate to compensate LESSEE for the lost parking facilities. In such condemnation proceedings, LESSEE may claim compensation for moving expenses and for the taking of any removable installations which by the terms of this lease LESSEE would be permitted to remove at the expiration of this lease, if such award is separately allowed by the condemning authority, but LESSEE shall be entitled to no additional award and LESSEE hereby waives all right to proceed for the loss of its leasehold interest, it being agreed that all damages recoverable by reason of the value of the LEASED PREMISES will belong and be payable to the LESSOR.

26. SUBORDINATION - ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATES: This lease is subject and subordinate to any mortgage that now or hereafter encumbers or affects the LEASED PREMISES or any part thereof. This clause shall be self-operative and the mortgagee need require no further instrument of subordination. In confirmation of such subordination, however, LESSEE shall, at LESSOR'S request, promptly execute any appropriate certificate or instrument containing an agreement by the mortgagee that so long as LESSEE is not in default under this lease such mortgagee will not disturb LESSEE'S possession of the LEASED PREMISES. In the event of the enforcement by any mortgagee of the remedies provided for by law or by such mortgage or ground lease, LESSEE will, upon request of any person or party succeeding to the interest of LESSOR as a result of such enforcement, automatically become the LESSEE of such successor in interest without change in the terms or other provisions of this lease. Upon request by such successor in interest, LESSEE shall execute and deliver an instrument or instruments confirming the attornment provided for herein. At either party's request, the other party will execute an estoppels certificate or a three-party agreement certifying that this lease is in effect, if, in fact, it is in effect and further certifying that, to the best knowledge of the party giving the certificate. There are no defaults hereunder other than those set out in such certificate.

27. ASSIGNMENT OR SUBLETTING: This lease may not be assigned and the LEASED PREMISES may not be sublet, partially or fully, without prior written consent of LESSOR. Even in the event of permitted assignment or subletting, LESSEE acknowledges that it shall remain fully responsible for compliance with all terms of the lease. Any sub-lessee occupying any part of this space shall by the act of subletting formally or informally assume all obligations of LESSEE, whether or not LESSOR knew of or approved or disapproved of such subletting.

28. EXTENSION OF LEASE: Provided LESSEE is not in default of any of the terms of this lease, LESSEE shall have the option to extend this lease for N/A periods with the monthly rental rate to be determined. The terms of said extension will be negotiated six (6) months prior to the end of this original lease period. To exercise this option, LESSEE must give LESSOR written notice of his intent to extend the lease six (6) months prior to the termination of this lease. If LESSEE notified LESSOR as specified above, LESSOR shall give LESSEE written notice of the changes in the terms and conditions of this lease for the option period. LESSEE shall have until the fourth month prior to the expiration of the lease term to exercise his option to extend this lease by accepting the terms and conditions set forth in LESSOR'S written notice.

29. DELIVERY AT EXPIRATION OF LEASE: At expiration of this lease, LESSEE shall redeliver to LESSOR the LEASED PREMISES in good order and condition clear of all goods and broom-cleaned and shall make good all damages to the premises, usual and reasonable wear and tear damage excepted and shall remain liable for holdover rent until the premises with keys shall be returned in such order to LESSOR, provided, however that the assessment of such holdover rent will not deprive LESSOR of the right to require that LESSEE vacate the LEASED PREMISES immediately upon lease termination and LESSOR will have and retain the right to commence immediate eviction proceedings or take such other steps as are necessary to secure the removal of LESSEE from the LEASED PREMISES. No demand or notice of such delivery shall be necessary; LESSEE expressly waiving all notices and legal delays. In addition, LESSOR may require LESSEE to remove all and any alterations, additions or improvements (whether or not made with LESSOR'S consent) prior to the expiration of the lease and to restore the property to its prior condition, all at LESSEE'S expense. All alterations, additions and improvements which LESSOR has not required LESSEE to remove shall become LESSOR'S property and shall be surrendered to LESSOR upon the expiration or earlier termination of the lease. To the extent applicable, all obligations of LESSEE contained in this article shall survive the expiration or other termination of the terms of this lease.

30. LATE CHARGES: LESSEE'S failure to pay rent promptly may cause LESSOR to incur unanticipated costs. The exact amount of such costs is impractical or extremely difficult to ascertain. Such costs may include, but are not limited to processing and accounting charges and late charges which may be imposed on LESSOR by any ground lease, mortgage or trust deed encumbering the LEASED PREMISES. Therefore, if LESSOR does not receive any rent payment within five (5) days after it becomes due, LESSEE shall pay LESSOR a late charge equal to ten percent (10%) of the overdue amount. The parties agree that such late charge represents a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs LESSOR will incur by reason of such payment.

31. LEASE HOLDOVER: Should LESSEE remain on the LEASED PREMISES after expiration of this lease agreement, LESSOR has the option to interpret such actions as creating a month-to-month lease at a rental of fifty percent (50%) higher than that payable for the last month of the lease term, or to consider the holding over a trespass. Only a new signed lease or extension agreement shall deprive LESSOR of the choice of action.

32. DEFAULT BY LESSEE: Should LESSEE fail to pay any of the rentals provided for herein promptly on the day when the same shall become due and payable hereunder and shall continue in default for a period of five (5) days after written notice thereof by LESSOR, or should LESSEE fail to comply with any of the other obligations of this lease within twenty (20) days from the mailing by LESSOR of notice demanding same or in the event of LESSEE'S bankruptcy, receivership, insolvency or assignment of the benefit of creditors or the attachment of the contents of the LEASED PREMISES by law or LESSEE'S failure to maintain a going business in the LEASED PREMISES, then LESSOR shall have the right, at LESSOR'S option (1) to cancel this lease, in which event there
