Boutte man's determination guided him to 300-pound loss

Ryan Arena Editor
ryana@heraldguide.com

Blake Lorio recognized something had to change, and that he had to make it happen.

"The Hahnville High School alum had always struggled with his weight - "I was always known as 'the big guy,'" he said. He estimates that at his heaviest, he weighed over 500 pounds. But after seeing a photo of himself taken around Christmas of 2021, Lorio was taken aback.

"I was like, 'wow, I look like that?'" Lorio said. "I didn't really realize it. I don't take many pictures and I don't think I grasped where I actually was with it ... I just felt like, this can't be what it is."

It no longer is. Lorio committed to changing his life – he has lost approximately 300 pounds over the past four-plus years, crossing that milestone just a few weeks ago.

"Once I set a goal for myself, I'm going to do whatever it takes in order for me to get there," Lorio said.

The photo was the final domino to fall and spur him into action, but Lorio had a different

The plan was to host a series of soft openings until the restaurant was fully staffed and every employee was fully trained, but sometimes things don't go according to plan.

"Word got out that we were open and people came out to try the restaurant ... a lot more people than we expected," Edwin Carranza-Padilla said of his family's latest restaurant venture.

Community rallies behind Boutte flower shop after hit-and-run

Ryan Arena Editor

It wasn't exactly a welcome sight for Kaysea Tassara as she looked upon the significant damage done to her soon-to-open Boutte business. Nonetheless, in another way, she felt incredibly fortunate.

"I had just left an hour prior, thank goodness," said Tassara. "Because I was up on the ladder hanging lights, and that could have been awful."

On Friday afternoon, a car crashed into the front of Tassara's flower shop, Flowers Near Me. It caused significant damage to the building, which will delay the new store's opening – it was previously scheduled for Nov. 20.

Damage done to Kaysea Tassara's Boutte flower shop after a car drove into the storefront.

Tassara was heading to a Trunk or Treat event with her family when she received a phone call from the building's property manager informing her of the incident.

"She was two hours away and couldn't get there, so she needed me to be her eyes and ears and to talk to the police," Tassara said. "We went there and I'm thinking somebody maybe backed their car in and broke a window, like it was an accident. It was a thousand times worse than I could have imagined. Five panels of glass, including my door, was completely caved into my shop. The entirety of my storefront was destroyed.

New commander makes history at American Legion Post 366

Ryan Arena Editor
ryana@heraldguide.com

Brandon Sampson and his family lost their home during Hurricane Ida, but nonetheless found a way to help others at the time – and it led him on a fateful path.

"We lost our home, but people needed to eat," Sampson recalled. "We were going out of town to get food and bring it back to provide hot meals."

Sampson gestured to those around him at American Legion Post 366 in St. Rose.

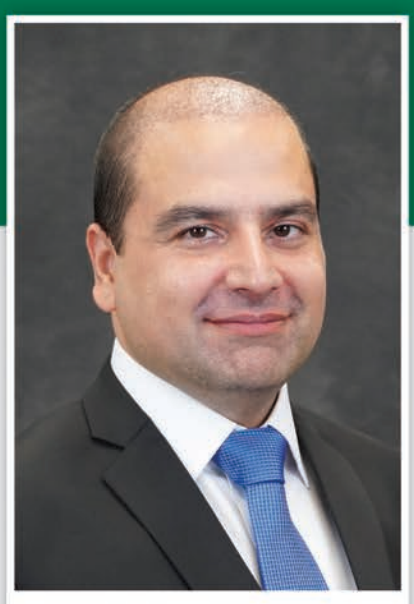

"These guys saw and said 'we'll back you up.' And it was an easy choice for me to join," Sampson said.

Approximately five years later, history was made as Sampson was formally installed into office as 366's new Post Commander. The veteran becomes the first black commander in the post's history.

"It's some big shoes to fill, for sure. It's a great honor. Honestly, I just look at it as I can't mess this up, being the first," Sampson said with a smile. "There's some pressure with it, but I honestly don't think about it like that. I just want to be a great commander. Being the first black commander is just a bonus. My grandfather was in the Army. My grandparents were the ones who inspired me to enlist in the Navy. And I know if they could just see me now, they would be proud."

kind of weight on his shoulders before beginning this journey.

His father had been diagnosed with kidney failure and his mother with congestive heart failure. During the worst of their struggle, Lorio found himself running between different hospitals and rehabilitation facilities while caring for them both. He said he is grateful to be able to say that both of his parents are in stable health today.

Long hours at work as a CPA combined with mounting family responsibilities left him little time to focus on himself. The experience also served as a wake-up call.

"It kind of made me realize that I have to focus on my health," Lorio said.

He first made sweeping changes to his diet.

"I never cooked at home – it was all fast food," said Lorio. "McDonald's before work. Then we worked right off of Veteran's (Blvd.) and I had every place in the book to go eat."

He eliminated bread and soda completely from his diet. He focused on making sure his meals included ample protein.

The largest step was scaling back to one traditional meal a day – something Lorio said is likely not the best path for everyone to go on but is something that's worked for him. His routine consisted of coffee in the morning and a protein shake for lunch.

That got the ball rolling. He would weigh himself once a week, and each week he'd see the number on display gradually decline.

"I was so motivated and locked in on my diet that I never saw a gain," he said.

Still, he never allowed himself to become overly fixated on the scale.

"It's just a number. This is more about how you feel," Lorio said. "And I just continued to feel better as I went on."

As he lost the weight, more positive effects began to surface.

Lorio suffered from sleep apnea, which affected his sleep quality and energy level during the day. As he lost weight, his condition improved. He was able to stop using the CPAP machine he used to treat the condition. His sleep improved, along with his energy.

"I'd fall asleep at times during my lunch break," said Lorio. "I'd have headaches in the morning ... I started feeling so much better."

He used Walmart delivery work as an additional source of physical activity during the early stages, essentially turning the side job into part of his exercise routine.

As he gained momentum, he added daily exercise to his routine and took it seriously. He hired a personal trainer at Anytime Fitness in Destrehan who has since become a close friend. For the past two years, he has gone directly to the gym from work each day.

During his most consistent period of weight loss, he estimates he dropped between 10 and 15 pounds a month.

He said he feels better in virtually every aspect of his life and no longer has to make decisions based on his size or physical limitations. Previously, he avoided amusement parks because he worried he wouldn't fit on rides and knew certain activities would be uncomfortable or impossible. He also described how everyday tasks became difficult.

He recalled visiting Las Vegas and walking approximately 40,000 steps in a day, something that would have been unimaginable before his transformation.

Lorio said he feels free again.

"I feel 100 percent better in every aspect of life," he said. "It's not like I can't live my life. Now I'm living my life and now I'm just living it healthier."

PADILLA'S from 1A

Padilla's Mexican Grill in Luling opened on Oct. 26, and Carranza-Padilla said it has been a whirlwind ever since. He owns the restaurant with his father, Servando Padilla, and his uncle, Ricardo Padilla. It is the third restaurant the Padilla family has opened. The other two are in Slidell and Pearl River. This is the first one to bear their name.

"Since last week it's been a little bit of a rush to spring into full production, but my family is excited to bring new flavors to Luling that people here may not have had the chance to try," Carranza-Padilla said. "We thank God for the opportunity to be a part of Luling ... if you give us a chance, I promise we won't disappoint. We do things with love and heart."

Padilla's menu includes Mexican favorites, as well as more adventurous items, including tripa (beef small intestines) and lengua (beef tongue) street tacos. Food and drink menus are available at eatpadillas.com.

Padilla's Mexican Grill is located at 12371 U.S. 90, Suite A, in Luling. It is open Monday through Thursday from 10:30 a.m. to 10 p.m., Friday and Saturday from 10:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m., and Sunday from 10:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. The restaurant can be found on several social media platforms, including Facebook and Instagram.

crowd engagement with a humorous look at life through a Cajun lens. The combination has found an audience in the area: Last season, The Couyons sold out three separate shows at German Coast.

For German Coast, the show is also part of a broader effort to give residents more reasons to enjoy entertainment and other activities close to home. Zeringue said events like this introduce the brewery to visitors who might not otherwise stop in, while giving them a reason to return.

German Coast Beer Company owner June Zeringue said one of her favorite things about owning the brewery is seeing the smiles on people's faces and hearing the laughter generated by events such as The Couyons of Comedy tour.

"When we host these events, it brings people that may not usually stop in at the brewery," she said. "But once they are in the door, they always say they are coming back — and they do. It feels amazing that the community continues to embrace new things … whether it is all the new beers we release, new food events and entertainment events like this comedy show. It shows that people in our area really are looking for local activities and are willing to stay local."

Saturday night's Couyons of Comedy show will take place from 7 to 10 p.m. at German Coast Beer Company, 13899 River Road, Suite B, in Luling. Doors will open at 6 p.m. for the general admission show. Tickets are $25 and can be purchased at www.couyonsofcomedy.com.

CRASH from 2A

"I just thought, 'this cannot be happening right now.'"

Tassara noted that the driver fled the scene, but a suspect was arrested a day after the incident. She said the driver is not insured.

Nobody was injured in the incident, something Tassara said she was thankful for.

Kaysea and Thomas Tassara with their children.

Right now, the focus has been on working with insurance to find out what the next steps are. Tassara said the building itself is insured by the property owner, but Tassara's insurance for the business was to go into effect on Monday, a few days after the crash - so details are being ironed out in that regard.

"They're almost done cleaning up and now it's a matter of how quickly we can get it fixed," said Tassara on Tuesday.

She said a new opening date is up in the air until the details can be sorted out.

"Another tough part is I had offered 32 positions to small business owners to fill the sales floor with handmade goods made here locally," said Tassara. "They were supposed to be loading in their inventory this week. So on top of everything, it's not something that's just affecting me."

Beyond simply happening before the store's opening, the timing could not have been worse.

"I was fully invested in this business, every penny, every ounce of my savings because we were about to open and I was about to have some type of return," Tassara said. "We're just before the holidays and this is like the past major push, pretty much, until Valentine's Day when it comes to flower shopping."

A GoFundMe (titled "Help keep Flowers Near Me going after a hit and run") had raised more than $5,700 as of Tuesday evening. She said she was overwhelmed by the support.

"I've never had a community rally behind me in any way to this kind of extent. At a time I'm feeling like, wow, there's no way I can recover from this, it's given me a glimpse of hope that this shop can still be everything I wanted it to be."

Tassara and her family recently moved to St. Rose from the West Coast. Her husband, Thomas, is a member of the U.S. Coast Guard and was born and raised in St. Rose. Tassara previously owned a flower shop in Washington for five years. They moved to the area a little more than a year ago, and she initially hoped to bring her previous business with her. Space limitations prevented that, so she spent approximately a year and a half saving money to open a new shop in Louisiana.

The opportunity to secure what she considered the perfect space finally allowed her to pursue that dream and establish roots locally.

The community response, she said, has inspired hope that the incident could be merely a temporary setback and not the end of her business before it began as she initially feared.

I feel like the community has wrapped us in their arms and let us know we're going to be OK," Tassara said.

LEGION from 2A

Sampson enlisted in the Navy in 2000 and was stationed in Norfolk, Virginia. He participated in Operation Iraqi Freedom and completed three tours of duty overseas.

After his military service ended, Sampson returned to Louisiana. A disabled veteran, Sampson said the American Legion provided him with resources and ultimately connected him with benefits.

Brandon Sampson during his time in the U.S. Navy.

He says he wants to pay that forward.

"When I came in, these guys helped me so much. To be in position where I can point others in the direction to get their benefits, that's a blessing," Sampson said.

Sampson served as flag bearer and vice commander at Post 366 before taking on his new role.

He also has a big family, with seven children and five grandchildren. The men and women of the American Legion, likewise, are extended family.

"We can all come together to tell stories. There's no judgment – we understand each other," Sampson said. "It's a great outlet for men and women who are like-minded and understand the struggles of trying to adapt back to civilian life, dealing with different struggles and ailments from the military ... it's people you can really talk to and reach out."

Sampson is excited about Post 366's upcoming plans. He said the Post recently hosted a Trunk or Treat event and the aim is to make that an annual tradition again. He said the hall is available for weddings, baby showers and other events, and the hope is to also have it open for community watch events for football games and other sporting events.

"We want to bring some life into the community," Sampson said.

He also wants to make other veterans aware that the American Legion can provide helpful resources. Sampson stressed the Post is open to new members. Meetings are held the last Wednesday of every month at 6:30 p.m. A hot meal is provided prior to each meeting.

Wildcats look to cement bye week with win over Bourgeois

Destrehan would seal undefeated district championship with a victory

Ryan Arena Editor
ryana@heraldguide.com

Destrehan will look to cement a top 4 seed this week as it travels to face H.L. Bourgeois this Friday night.

Bourgeois (1-8, 0-5) has one win this season, a 53-2 win over General Trass. That win came two weeks ago, the first victory for first year Braves head coach Muncie Legaux.

Bourgeois went 5-5 last season. Legaux, who starred at Karr and the University of Cincinnati as quarterback during his playing days, has taken on a rebuilding project of the Braves program.

Ethan Rhodes leads the huddle at quarterback for the Braves, the sophomore winning a preseason competition for the position.

Defensively, La'Rance Mitchell can cause plenty of problems. The senior defensive end is a three-year starter. On the opposite side, Tyler Harris is another talented and productive defensive end. At 6'2 and 230 pounds, he's another disruptive force.

The secondary is skilled and Bourgeois leans on them heavily, playing an aggressive man to man style.

A BIG STEP FORWARD - One area inspiring optimism for another deep Wildcats playoff run has been a much-improved special teams unit this season.

Mistakes in that area cost Destrehan significantly in a tight second round playoff loss to eventual state champion Ouachita Parish last season, and its been a strong focus for the team this season. Destrehan's kicking game has been very solid and productive all season behind placekicker Ian Arceneaux and punter Ryan Comeaux, and the return game has given the team a boost as well - earlier this season, Jaylin Ash made the Wildcats' first kickoff return for a score in several seasons.

"That's been a real point of emphasis for us - we feel that it kind of cost us in the playoffs," Scott said. "We wanted to make sure we shored that up this offseason and we put a lot of work into it. Snappers, holders, kickers, punters, all of those guys really put in a lot of work."

A slow offensive start for Destrehan led to a hole the Wildcats could not dig out of in a 31-21 loss at Zachary Friday night.

Zachary led 17-7 at halftime. That lead was extended to 24-7 with 3:57 left in the third quarter on quarterback Jakori Platt's 2-yard touchdown run, the first in a flurry of scores to end the third quarter.

It took just a little over a minute for Destrehan to respond. Aushai Smith got loose on a long run which set up a Malachi Dabney 2-yard touchdown run out of the Wildcat formation to make it 24-14.

Tylek Lewis punched in a score to put Zachary (6-3) back ahead by 17, 31-14, after a long reception by Ethan Kimmie from Platt set up the Broncos inside the DHS 10.

Smith cut the lead to 10 on a touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter, but Destrehan could draw no closer.

Destrehan head football coach Marcus Scott said it was a disappointing outcome, in particular due to some redzone possessions that the Wildcats were not able to convert on. That, he said, echoed a similar issue in Destrehan's only other loss this season in Week 2 to St. Augustine.

"We had opportunities two different times in the redzone and didn't convert. That was probably the

Hahnville aims to secure top 8 seed, playoff home games

Ryan Arena Editor
ryana@heraldguide.com

Hahnville's 24-20 victory over Thibodaux last week was a major one for the team in terms of playoff positioning.

The win over THS, currently ranked ninth in power points in Class 5A non-select, moved Hahnville up to 10. A win over Central Lafourche in Boutte this Friday night would secure at least one playoff home game for Hahnville, and potentially could guarantee two if a win would spur Hahnville (6-3, 4-1) into the Top 8.

"I think some of the projections have us up at 7 or 8 if we win," said Hahnville head football coach Greg Boyne. "Obviously, it's huge to get a home game. We're treating this like it would be a district championship or playoff game. Winning would set us up in a good spot going forward in the playoffs."

Central is 4-5 this season under first year Trojans head coach Aaron Babin – after just three weeks, it matched its win total from a year ago and have now doubled it.

This is a high-scoring team under Babin. It earned a 37-14 win over West Jefferson in Week 1 and a 51-0 victory over Patterson in Week 2. A rivalry matchup against South Lafourche resulted in a 55-36 loss, but the offense continued to create explosive plays. There have been some down weeks as well, but only Thibodaux, Destrehan and East St. John have held the Trojans to less than 20 points.

"They're much improved for sure," Boyne said. "A lot more kids in the program, playing some younger guys. They play differently than they have in the past. They were a zone, soft-coverage team and now they play a lot of man. So, when we put the film on, it was a much different look than what we're accustomed to."

Central Lafourche is ranked 29th in Division I non-select. A total of 28 teams qualify for the postseason.

So, for the Trojans, the only way into the postseason is through Hahnville.

"We've told our kids, look, they're on the outside looking in, so any trick play they have, any onside kick, you have to assume they'll throw everything at you," Boyne said. "We've spent the first two days this week working on different situations so we can be prepared for anything."

Quarterback Brock Babin leads the offense. Among his top targets are Reese Verdin – the two connected for a 60-yard score last week against South Lafourche. The ground game is paced by running back Hunter Babin, Treyvenne Allen and Tamyren Crandle Boyne said Central keys the offense off the run.

"They have a big back and they have a big offensive line, so that presents a challenge," Boyne said. "They run multiple things. They'll run the quarterback. They'll run inside zone and outside zone. They rotate three guys at running back and work play-action to get the ball downfield. We have to be very sound with our keys, stay in our lanes and do our job defensively."

As for the Central Lafourche defense, it's aggressive man coverage for most of the game. Cornerbacks Parker Verret and Jason Domangue take on plenty of responsibility.

"They're kind of in your face, blitzing and blitzing some more," Boyne said. "You don't see a lot of Cover 0 with no safety, but they'll do it about 20 to 30 percent of the time. So, you've got to max protect and keep the quarterback protected."

Fabian Celestine's 20-yard touchdown run with 7:57 left in the third quarter proved the game-winning touchdown against Thibodaux, putting Hahnville ahead by four – it was the only touchdown in a second half in which Hahnville (6-3, 4-1) shut Thibodaux out. The touchdown was Celestine's second of the night.

He'd come through again on Hahnville's final possession, earning some tough yardage on third-and-two to secure a first down with 1:42 left to play – and Thibodaux (7-2, 4-2) out of time outs.

"I knew it was big. We needed to get two tough yards, and I just had the mindset if we get these tough yards we're gonna come out with the W. And that's what happened," said Celestine. "This (win) was pretty big. We're fighting to try and get two home games, so next week's going to be big for us too."

Each stop by the HHS defense was crucial over the game's final stages, several coming deep in Hahnville territory. Thibodaux's final possession saw it face a 4th down just outside of the Hahnville redzone. Damien Robertson's pass was broken up by Brody Benoit and Hahnville forced a turnover on downs. Benoit said the fourth down play Thibodaux ran was one Hahnville drilled against many times in the days leading up to the game.

"Credit to our coaches. We've got a couple of guys out with injury, and it's really a team effort. We've had guys coming in who don't normally play, and they stepped up big time. Our coaches changed the scheme up a little bit and we played more man. It was a complete team effort tonight," Benoit said.

Boyne said his team has had several players step up whenever their number is called.

"You know, Benoit, and (Nicholas) Troxler … there's a lot of kids, whether they start or not, they come in and they make plays every week," said Boyne. "The linebackers rotate. There's really no starter. There's no selfishness. They're in the game, they know their job and they make plays … (Benoit) made the play when his time came, and it was a huge stop."

Tigers celebrate LeBoeuf's final home game with victory, district crown

Longtime Hahnville head volleyball coach guided team to five district championships in a row

Ryan Arena Editor
ryana@heraldguide.com

Mendi LeBoeuf's former players were in the crowd to deliver well-wishes and support for the longtime Hahnville volleyball coach as she guided her Lady Tigers in the final home game of her career.

As for her current players, they honored their coach in the best way they knew how – with a dominant effort, victory and a fifth consecutive district crown.

Hahnville defeated H.L. Bourgeois 25-18, 25-14, 25-6 to clinch the outright District 6-I championship. The Tigers went undefeated in district play. The win was the third in what was a string of four straight wins for Hahnville.

"I'm excited for our girls," LeBoeuf said. "We've been working since May. They work all summer long. And for them to step up as a team and collectively work together to win the district championship, it's rewarding to see. This was a goal we set out for and a goal they committed themselves to."

It was Hahnville's Senior Salute night, where the Tigers honored their five senior players.

"We had a whole lot of people in the gym to celebrate with us," LeBoeuf said.

For LeBoeuf, it marked the final home game of a 33-year career coaching the Lady Tigers. She said she decided before the season that this would be her final season as head coach - she will focus on her duties as athletic director at Hahnville going forward.

"I still enjoy coaching. To be honest, I'm just kind of ready to not live by a calendar," LeBoeuf said. "I'm ready to do some things with my husband and have things be just a little less hectic."

She said it was touching to see many of her former players attending the game, and simply great to see them again.

"It was kind of overwhelming to see so many past players come out for the game," said LeBoeuf. "I'm thankful they thought enough to come out. It was really beautiful to have them there. The best part about coaching, to me, is just the kids. And they're not kids anymore. They're women now. To just be able to see them for a little while and visit was very special."

Hahnville finished the regular season with a record of 18-19. The Tigers earned the No. 24 seed in Division I and were set to face No. 9 Chalmette Wednesday. That game took place after Herald-Guide's press time, but the result will be covered in the next edition.

HHS closed the regular season in tournament action, with wins over Walker, 26-24, 25-21, 15-5 and Central Private, 25-17, 25-18 and losses to St. Scholastica, 25-15, 25-21, and Fontainebleau, 25-21, 25-23.

"I think we finished the regular season well. We played a lot of difficult teams leading into district and some good teams this past weekend in Baton Rouge," said LeBoeuf.

LeBoeuf said Madyn Romero has continued to lead the team's defense with her energy and activity, and that the offense has gotten better and better throughout the season as Ava Hogan and Sophia Hotard have grown into their roles as sophomore setters.

Senior outside hitter Maci Hollingsworth, meanwhile, is nearing the close of her final season as a Tiger and to a standout prep career on the volleyball court.

Last season, Hollingsworth eclipsed the 1,000 career kill mark – and recently, she passed the 1,000 career digs mark as a Tiger.

"We celebrated a thousand digs about two weeks ago,' said LeBoeuf. "She's definitely a special player. She's meant a lot to our program, not just because she's a good volleyball player, but because she's really grown into a good leader and a good teammate."

Not many freshman have started for LeBoeuf at Hahnville, but Hollingsworth was among the few who have.

"That's a testament to who she was and the work she put in before she ever got to Hahnville," said LeBoeuf. "To be as successful as she's been and has the longevity she has had in all four years, it's a rare feat."

Hollingsworth had 10 kills and five digs in the win over Walker. Alania Thompson had seven kills and Abigail Hotard had six. Hogan and Romero each had seven digs while Sophia Hotard had six.

In the win over Central Private, Romero had 15 digs. Hollingsworth had 12 kills and 10 digs.

WILDCATS from 7A

difference in the game," said Scott. "Whenever you have chances with a short field, you have to come away with seven."

Scott credited a balanced attack from the Zachary offense for keeping the Destrehan defense on its heels.

"They had a steady dose of run and then they were able to hit over the top with Kimmie on a post route," said Scott.

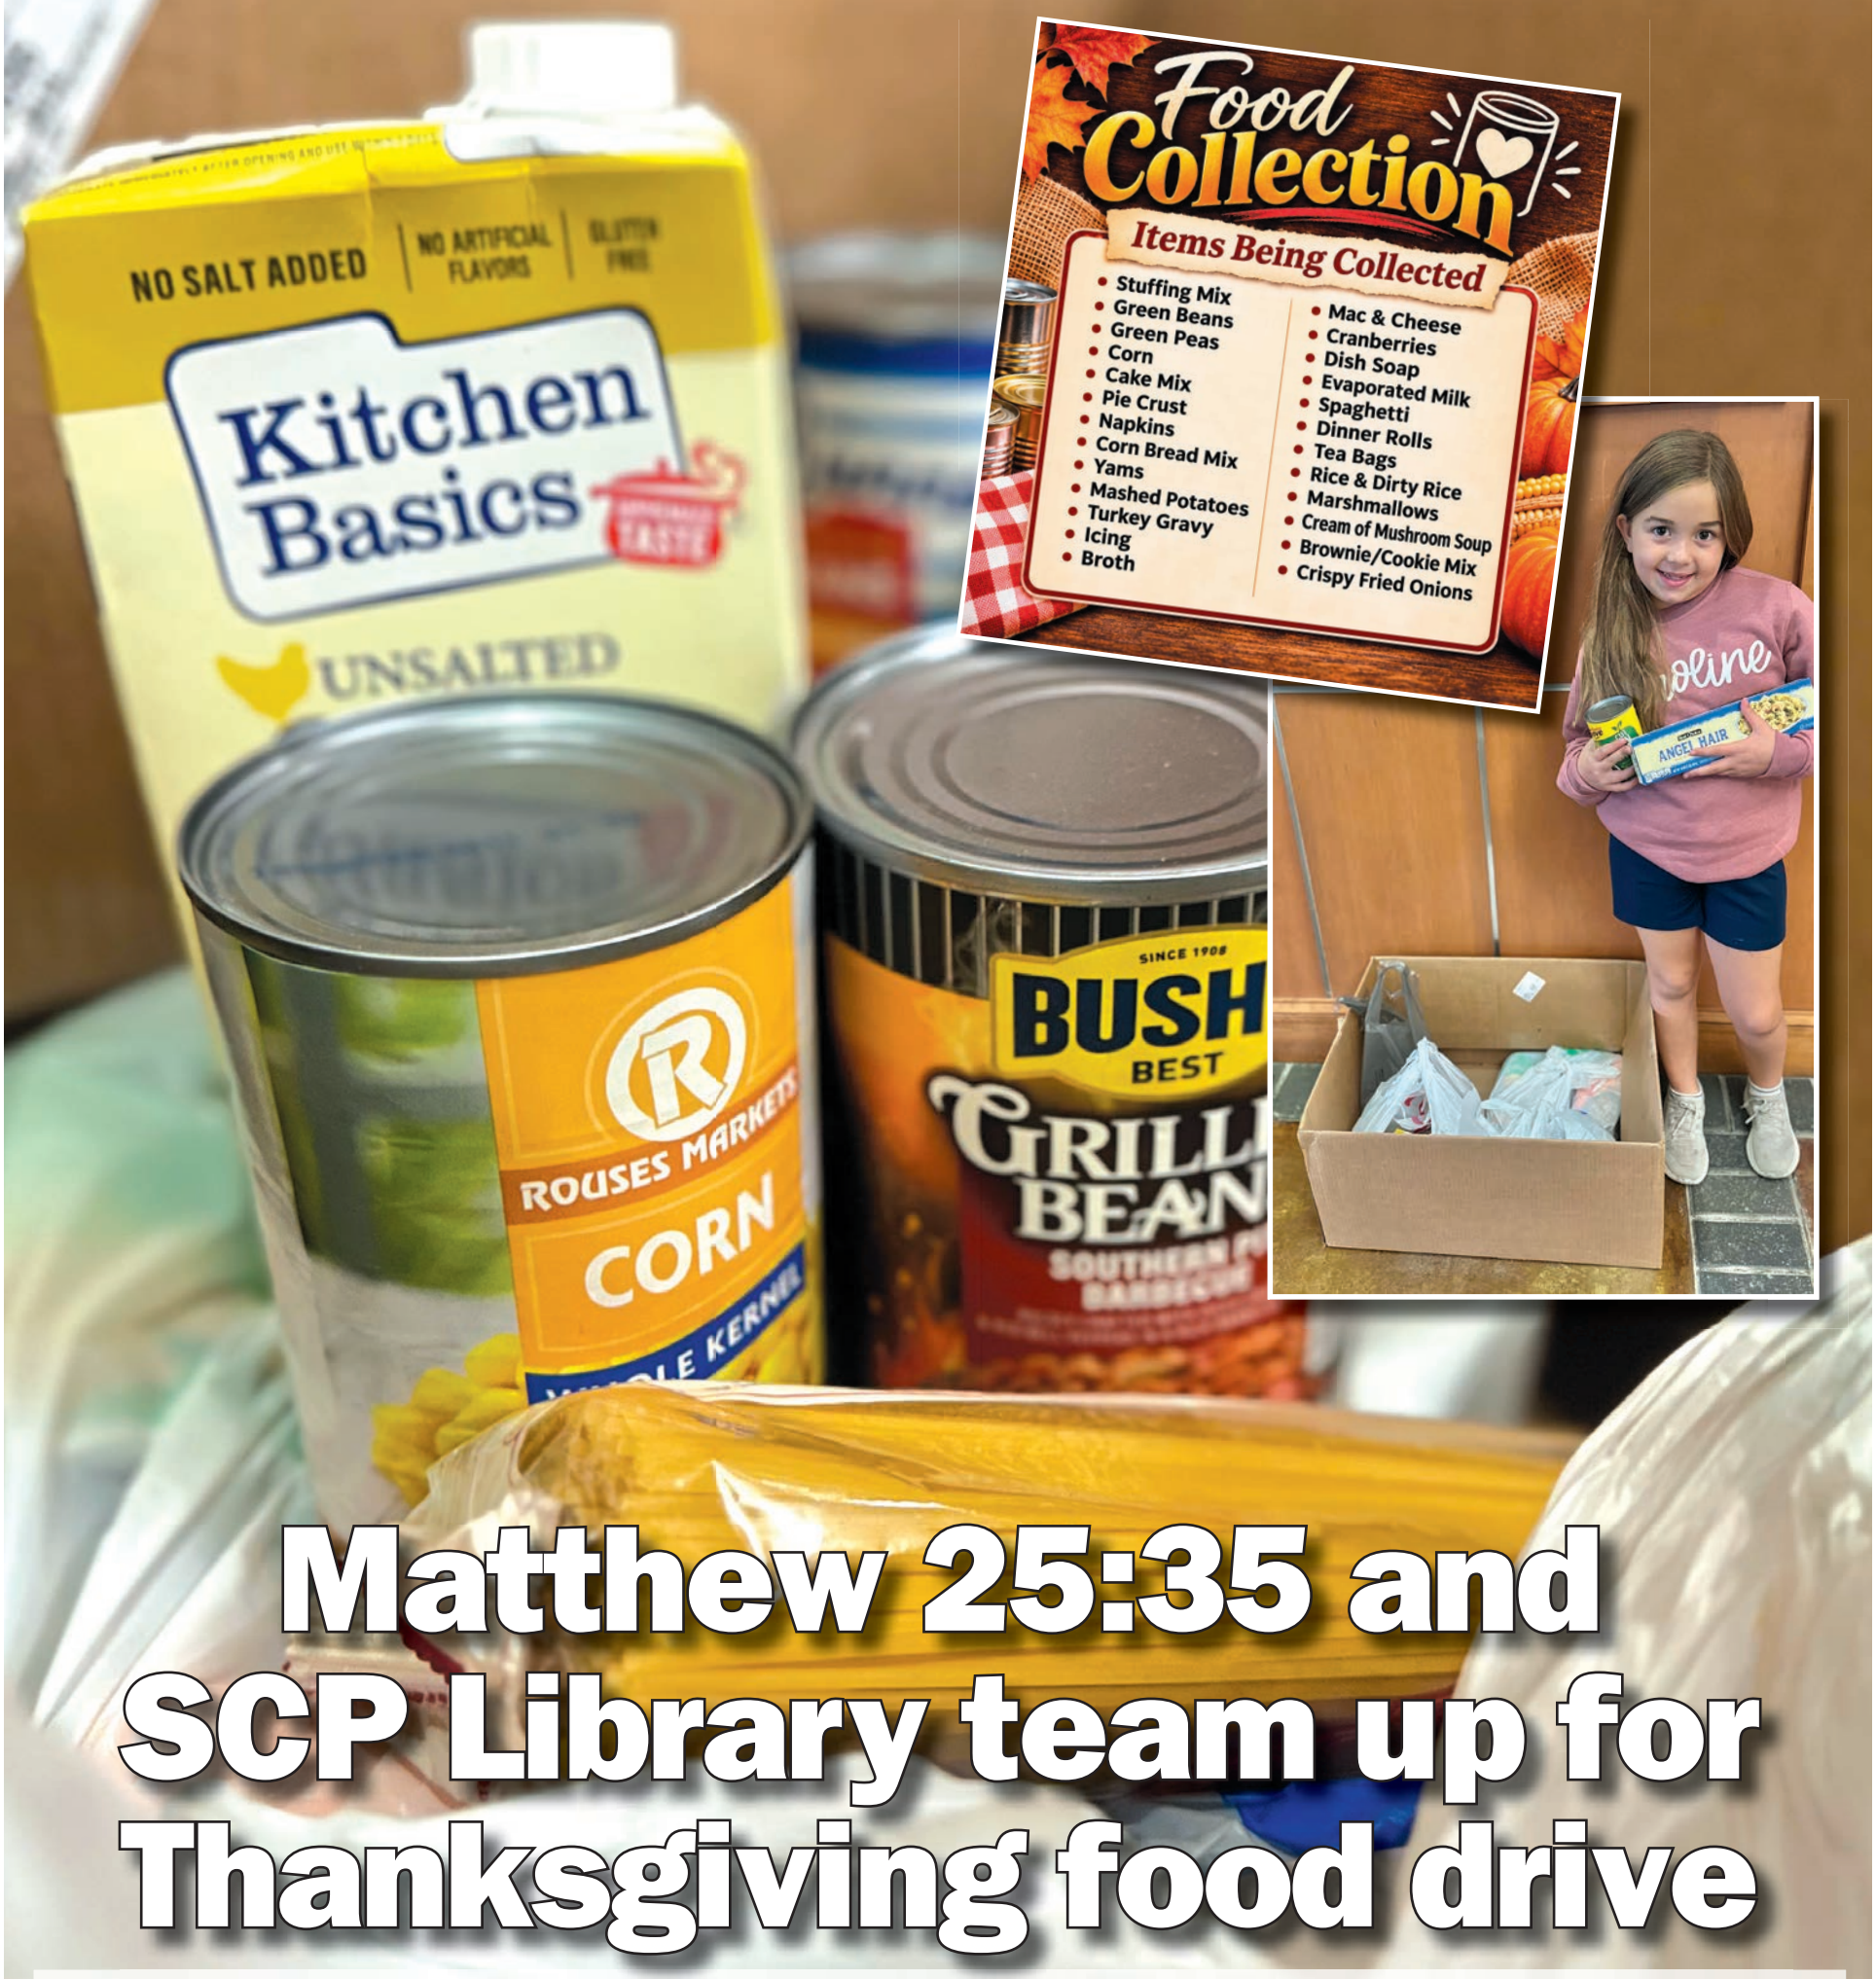

"Tonight was disappointing because the last time we lost, it was three opportunities against St. Aug inside the 10-yard line that we didn't get points from, and tonight was a similar story."

Destrehan's first touchdown came on a 35-yard run by Smith, tying the game 7-7 in the second quarter.

Destrehan (7-2) remained a top 4 ranked team in power points following the loss, while Zachary climbed to 8 from 10. Destrehan ranked second before the game.

Aushai Smith completed 11-of-19 passes for 100 yards with an interception for the Wildcats. He had a big night on the ground, rushing 13 times for 132 yards and two touchdowns. Malachi Dabney rushed 13 times for 59 yards and a touchdown.

Jaylin Ash and Coryan Armstrong each caught four passes, Ash for 44 yards and Armstrong for 40. Malik Lee had a strong night defensively - the linebacker made 10 tackles, with six of those solo stops.

Matthew 25:35 and SCP Library team up for Thanksgiving food drive

Monique Roth Editor
mroth@heraldguide.com

Matthew 25:35 Ministries always hosts an annual Thanksgiving food drive, but this year is remarkably different.

"The Thanksgiving drive that we're doing right now is really more important this year than it's ever been," Mary Anne Schindler, director of Matthew 25:35 Ministries, said.

With rising food costs, USDA cutbacks, low donations and dwindling supplies available from Second Harvest Food Bank, Schindler said food pantry items at Matthew 25:35 are scarcer than she's ever seen. She added that the organization supplements food donations with orders from local grocery stores. Those orders are paid for with donations and grants.

"I am always so moved by how generous St. Charles Parish is," she said. "I mean, they take care of each other here, and they take care of this food pantry. We're so used to living out here that it's almost easy to take the generosity for granted. People know the value of taking care of each other in St. Charles Parish, and I don't get that feeling when I talk to people from other parishes."

She added that although there is a list of desired Thanksgiving food drive items, any donation is appreciated right now.

"We're about to give out the last of the dried beans," she said. "I've never run out of dried beans before, and we're giving our last ones out this week. It's just unbelievable. We've been a nonprofit since 2016, and I've never seen this."

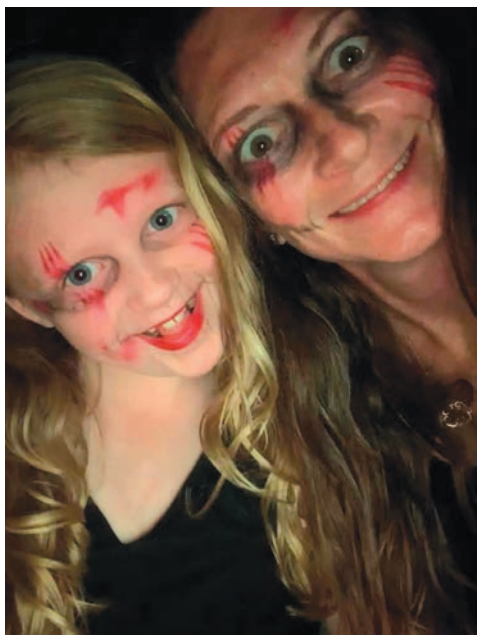

Fortunately, Schindler said Matthew 25:35 has not had to cut back on the number of people it serves.

"It always just happens," she said of food provision. "We had a lack of meat recently, and then out of the blue this trucking company calls me … with short ribs they can't return. They asked me if I could take them, and I said, 'I don't know how I'll take them, but I'll be there.' God has a special hand over the pantry and St. Charles Parish."

Matthew 25:35 Ministries, which operates out of St. Charles United Methodist Church, has once again teamed up with the St. Charles Parish Library system to offer convenient drop-off locations at all branches throughout the parish for Thanksgiving food drive donations. The drive is currently underway, and donations will be accepted through Tuesday, Nov. 10.

For a list of library locations, visit myscpl.org/locations. To volunteer, donate or learn more about Matthew 25:35, email Matthew2535.contact@gmail.com or visit its Facebook page.

Prayers

God's Power

It is not our power, but God's. We are nothing in ourselves but through God's power, prayers can change things. Let the power of God through our prayers help us & others. We are just clay that the potter can mold & make us as He pleases. We are all in God's hands & He is in control of everything. But let us pray to Him in spirit & in truth & believe He can change things for the better for us. He knows exactly what we have need of. He is our Father & His child can come to Him in faith & ask & you shall receive, if it's God's will, "He knows Best!" Amen

6.06 Final Payment. Upon the final completion of all Work, the Contractor may request a final inspection and may make a final Application for Payment as provided by Paragraph 15.06 of the General Conditions.

6.07 Final Acceptance. When Final Acceptance is granted by the Owner, the Owner shall file the certificate with the Recorder of Mortgages for St. Charles Parish.

6.08 At the expiration of the lien period the Contractor shall obtain a certificate from the Recorder of Mortgages of the Parish of St. Charles that the Contract is clear of any liens or privileges, and said certificate shall be presented to the Owner for final payment and release of retainage, less any such sums as may be lawfully withheld under the Contract.
